Healing Prayers/Mantras

I am sending you energies every day for each 4 week session. The energies will do the bulk of the work, and these prayers will supplement and magnify those healings... and release issues all on their own as well.

These Prayers/mantra calls on Divine Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit to do healing, and has a very high success rate for shifting past life issues that are still plaguing us in this lifetime. Most of what affects us, and most of entity attachments are from past life issues that are being exploited. That is why it is very important to heal them.

Say the prayer for approximately 30 min... I recommend at least 3 X a day. Or as often as you can. Keep going if you have tears, or are yawning, or are falling asleep as this means issues are being healed at a deep level. You can sleep when you feel the need to, just resume once you wake again.

It is best to say these Prayers and all prayers out loud. But when this is not possible then say it in your head. Resume out loud as soon as you can. Out loud has much greater vibrational energy.

These are one line Prayers/mantras: I believe the longer version is the strongest. But you can go by the results you experience, you should feel which prayer works best for you and synchs with your Soul. This is not a mental choice, this is figuring out which one works best for you. Alternate during the month of healing if you seem to have reached a block.

“I Am healed by Divine Father, Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit”

And/Or

“I Am healed by Holy Spirit”

These should be your “go to” prayers. If you feel anything that is not right in your world, daytime, or being woken up during the night, start saying one of these prayers and keep going until things feel right again.

Saying these prayers as a walking meditation is also a great idea, just whisper or say it out loud all day long if you are motivated to do so.

Don't get drawn into arguments! It is best to walk away before people lose their cool... and then come back when the energies are calmed again. Say these prayers as soon as you can. Entities often cause arguments between people. They need to expend energy to do so, so if you walk away you make them waste their energy reserves without results. You can come back again in 30 min typically when their reserves are empty from having used it to get everyone upset in the first place. Then you can talk like reasonable normal people again. Lives are ruined constantly by entities, so knowing this is very important!
